1. Conflict of interest: Authors are responsible for recognizing and disclosing any financial or other interests that could be perceived to bias their work, acknowledging all financial support and any personal connections with potential sponsors. Examples of such conflicts include receiving research funds or honoraria, serving on advisory boards, stock ownership, or employment and consulting arrangements. Authors without such connections should clearly state that they have no financial support or personal connections that could be perceived to bias their work. All conflicts of interest should be disclosed on the author identification page of the manuscript.

____ No, there is no conflict of interest that I should disclose, having read the above statement.

____ Yes, having read the above statement, there is a potential conflict of interest. This has been fully detailed in my author identification page.
