

ASHP Weekly Book and Literature Update Upgrade

And it has a brand new name, too, ASHP's MedInfoNow.

Go to the ASHP's MedInfoNow web site and see the amazing upgrades for yourself. This is a service offered to all current ASHP members.

Your current subscription will deliver a completely redesigned Weekly Literature Update email every Friday and full access to the web's most comprehensive database of books (print and electronic) in the health sciences. With the upgrade, you will have the most advanced search tools to find the books you're looking for, and lots of other new features. This upgrade has received rave reviews from ASHP leaders, and we believe you will be just as impressed,

Your ASHP membership also allows you to upgrade to the ASHP MedInfoNow Premium level at a 67% savings from what non-members pay. As a Premium subscriber, you will enjoy:

- ❖ A redesigned Weekly Literature Update that combines Medline® updates with news and reviews of print and electronic books in the health sciences from Doody's Review Service.
- ❖ The most user-friendly search experience available for Medline® on the web.
- ❖ New "Instant Answer" feature for clinical decision support.
- ❖ New TOC alerts from your favorite journals each week.
- ❖ Ability to "look inside the book" on hundreds of titles.

ASHP MedInfoNow Premium is different from anything else out there:

- ❖ It's the only service that offers expert searches (developed by medical librarians who are accomplished Medline® searchers) of key topics in medicine, pharmacy, nursing, and healthcare.
- ❖ It has the easiest and most intuitive search experience of Medline® on the web. You can narrow or broaden your search with one click.
- ❖ It combines updates of the journal literature with updates of the book literature.

ASHP MedInfoNow Premium is simply the most efficient way for pharmacists to stay current with the literature. Medline® data has never been better organized, indexed, or as accessible.

ASHP MedInfoNow Premium represents the best value – it costs pennies a week and the new search software saves you valuable time. What's more, as a member of ASHP, you can subscribe at a substantially discounted price!

Most importantly, ASHP MedInfoNow Premium saves you time so you can direct your energy to what matters most to you – the care of your patients.
