

Dear Colleagues:

I want to recognize the winner of the 2008 Section of Clinical Specialists and Scientists Distinguished Service Award, Kimberly A. Galt, Pharm.D., Ph.D.(c), FASHP. Dr. Galt, along with six other recipients representing the ASHP Pharmacy Practice Sections (PPS) and New Practitioners Forum (NPF), was honored at a luncheon held at the December 2008 Midyear Clinical Meeting in Orlando, Florida.

Selected by the respective past executive committees, The Distinguished Service Awards were created by the ASHP Pharmacy Practice Sections and New Practitioners Forum to recognize a member from each Section and NPF whose volunteer activities supported the mission of the Section or NPF and helped advance the profession of pharmacy. The awards are granted annually at the Midyear Clinical Meeting.

Dr. Galt is Professor of Pharmacy Practice, Associate Dean for Research, School of Pharmacy and Health Professions, and Director of the Creighton University Health Services Research Program (CHRP) in Omaha, Nebraska. Galt received her pharmacy degrees from the University of Michigan. She has developed and managed pharmacist's primary care consultative ambulatory practice sites in the private and Veterans Affairs systems, supervised specialized clinical pharmacy services, and practiced general hospital, community and long-term care pharmacy.

For more information on Dr. Galt, please visit the Section of Clinical Specialists and Scientists member spotlight at:

Please join me in congratulating Dr. Galt.

Sincerely,

Kelly M. Smith, Pharm.D., BCPS, FASHP, FCCP
Chair, Section of Clinical Specialists and Scientists
