

NEW PRACTITIONERS FORUM

New Practitioners Forum

New Practitioners Forum. An exciting and active home for graduates transitioning into the “real world” of pharmacy practice. Membership is automatic for pharmacists in the first FIVE years of practice. The Forum offers new practitioners with practical career development tools and programs as well as provides numerous opportunities for professional growth.

Leadership Opportunities

Want to establish your competitive advantage with your colleagues? Get involved with ASHP and influence change at the national level. Over 100 new practitioners currently hold leadership positions in ASHP—why not you?

www.ashp.org/newpractitioner

New Practitioners Forum Executive Committee (NPFECC)

Five new practitioners appointed annually by the ASHP President, provide strategic guidance for Forum activities and programs as well as advise ASHP staff on ways to better meet the needs of new practitioner members.

Deadline for Nominations: November 15

New Practitioner Representatives on ASHP Policy Committees

A seat is reserved on each of these committees, composed of thought leaders from across the country. The five councils recommend new program and policies as well as review and evaluate existing programs. The commissions concentrate on specific programmatic activities.

Deadline for Nominations: November 15

2011–2012 Executive Committee

Clockwise from top left: Jill Haug (Director, New Practitioners Forum), Kayla Hansen, Larry Clark (ASHP Board Liaison), Karen Berger, Jeff Little (Chair), Katherine Palmer, and Nicholas Bennett.

New Practitioners Forum Advisory Groups

Provide advice and guidance regarding Leadership and Career Development, Science and Research, Professional Practice, Public Affairs and Advocacy, Communications and Technology, and Professional Practice. Your input ultimately determines the programs and resources the Forum develops for new practitioner members.

Deadline for Nominations: May 15

Programs

New Practitioner Column in AJHP

A monthly column on topics of interest written by new practitioners for new practitioners.

Great eXpectations eXperience

High-tech, interactive, fresh and fun. ASHP provides an innovative, multi-faceted approach to career and professional development education for new practitioners. Check out Great eXpectations LIVE! at the Midyear, the Great eXpectations eConference, or Great eXpectations eVideo continuing education programs available on-demand on the Web! A unique and provocative learning experience for new practitioners, planned by new practitioners.

Resident Visit Program

An interactive and engaging all-day program at ASHP headquarters designed to assist residents identify ways that they can get more out of their membership and involvement in ASHP. Coming soon—resident visit webinar modules. Get the information without incurring the travel!

Webinar Series

Again, relevant and timely information developed by new practitioners for new practitioners, here is a sampling of the on-demand webinars available for new practitioners:

- “Keys to Unlocking the Past, Present, and Future of Health-System Pharmacy”
- “Going the Distance: Pointers for Preparing for the BCPS Exam”
- “New Practitioner Leadership: The Challenges and the Triumphs”
- “Preceptors: Making Music with Our Students”
- “Pharmacy Service Initiation: Steps for New Clinical Pharmacy Leaders”
- “E-Professional”

Resources

ASHP Connect

The ASHP Connect Community is the perfect place for you to start building your professional network. Use the members-only discussion board, become a fan of ASHP on Facebook, follow our Tweets or check out the ASHP Blog at <http://connect.ashp.org/Home>.

Need-to-Know Info

The NPF website is a portal to pertinent and timely info that you need to know for your daily practice:

- Video Career Profiles
- Clinical Guidance
- Career and Professional Development Resources
- Precepting
- Leadership Development
- Science and Research Tools

Check out www.ashp.org/newpractitioner for more information!

2011–2012 New Practitioners Forum Executive Committee

Chair

Jeff Little, Pharm.D., MPH
Kansas

Vice Chair

Katherine Palmer,
BA, Pharm.D.
Oregon

Executive Committee Members

Karen Berger,
Pharm.D., BCPS
Florida

Nicholas Bennett,
Pharm.D., BCPS
Missouri

Kayla Hansen,
Pharm.D., MS
Ohio

For more information, go to www.ashp.org/newpractitioner and click on “Get involved.”

Deadlines for Nominations

New Practitioners Forum Executive Committee

November 15

New Practitioners Representatives on ASHP Policy Committees

November 15

New Practitioners Forum Advisory Groups

May 15