

New Practitioners Forum

Mission

The mission of the ASHP New Practitioners Forum is to integrate new practitioners into the pharmacy community by acknowledging their unique needs and providing an opportunity for collaboration and professional development.

Vision

The ASHP New Practitioners Forum dedicates itself to achieving a vision where new practitioners:

- Apply evidence-based medicine to optimize patient care.
- Develop and improve skills to strengthen professional credibility.
- Create new opportunities and roles for pharmacists.
- Accept individual responsibility and accountability as health care professionals.
- Recognize that they make a difference in the profession.
- Actively communicate regarding common issues and career goals.
- Utilize ASHP resources and professional involvement opportunities.
- Establish professional relationships and foster a sense of community.
