MEMORANDUM

TO: Presidents, Executives, and ASHP State Affiliates

FROM: Henri R. Manasse, Jr., Ph.D., Sc.D.
Secretary, House of Delegates

SUBJECT: 2010 ASHP Delegate Election

This is the official call for delegates and alternate delegates to the 2010 session of the ASHP House of Delegates. The deadline for receipt of credentials is January 4, 2010.

Early return of delegate and alternate delegate credentials will allow ASHP to publish delegate names on the ASHP website (www.ashp.org) along with the complete policy committee reports. This will allow members reading the reports to know the names of their state delegates, so they can contact them with questions and comments about the pending issues before the House. ASHP values the important role of state affiliates in selecting delegates to the House of Delegates, the ultimate authority in establishing the professional policies of the organization, and we thank you in advance for your work related to the 2010 session.

In accordance with the attached ASHP Election Procedure Bylaws document, state affiliates are requested to cooperate with the ASHP Executive Office during the process of selecting state delegates from among all ASHP active members in individual states. No exceptions to the provisions in the Society's Bylaws or Rules of Procedure for the House of Delegates are permitted. For a complete set of Bylaws, a link to the Governing Documents of ASHP is being sent with this mailing.

It should be noted that delegates and alternate delegates represent the ASHP active members in a given state. "Selection" of state delegates and alternates shall be in accordance with the bylaws of the affiliated state society or in accordance with accepted procedure, but the "eligibility" of delegates and voters in the delegate election shall be in accordance with the ASHP Bylaws. All ASHP active members in each state, regardless of their membership status in the state society, are eligible to participate in the selection of delegates and to serve as delegates or alternates.

While there is a limitation set forth in the Bylaws on the number of delegates from a state, there is no limitation on the number of alternate delegates a state may designate. We recommend, however, that the number of alternate delegates not exceed the allowable number of delegates. Included in this mailing, is the ASHP House of Delegates Apportionment document for the Period July 1, 2007, to June 30, 2011 (as approved by the Board of Directors), which sets forth the number of delegates to be elected from among ASHP members in each state.

Enclosed is an electronic data file of ASHP active members in your state (as of September 30, 2009) Should you prefer mailing labels sent to you, please contact Leticia Collins at 301-664-8882 or via e-mail at lcollins@ashp.org.

Again, bear in mind that state delegates and alternates must be active members of ASHP. The names of delegates and alternates should be forwarded to the ASHP Executive Office via e-mail to ashpevp@ashp.org, no later than January 4, 2010 and are considered certified only if the communication is sent from a President, Secretary, or Executive of an ASHP Affiliated State Society.

The House of Delegates will meet on two separate occasions at the 2010 ASHP Summer Meeting in Tampa, Florida. The tentative schedule is:

1. First Meeting
Sunday, June 6, 2010, 2-4:30 p.m.

2. Final Meeting
Tuesday, June 8, 2010, 4:30-6 p.m.

Delegates and alternates registered for the House of Delegates must register separately to attend the Summer Meeting and must be registered for the Summer Meeting to participate as a Delegate.

If you have any questions pertaining to the information given in this memorandum, please feel free to contact the ASHP Executive Office at 301-664-8668 or 301-664-8882.

Section 7.1.

The House of Delegates shall consist of 163 voting state delegates, who shall represent a proportionate number of active members in each state; plus all Directors of ASHP; plus Past Presidents (if active members) after completing the term of office of Immediate Past President; plus five (voting) fraternal delegates; plus the (voting) chair of each Section and Forum. Each delegate shall have one vote, and no delegate may have more than one vote by virtue of any dual capacity in the House of Delegates.

7.1.1. Delegates shall be chosen as follows:

7.1.1.1. Section 8.2.4

"Affiliated state chapters shall administer the election of voting state delegates to the House of Delegates."

MEMORANDUM

To: Affiliated State Society Presidents and Executives

From: Hannah K. Vanderpool, Pharm.D, M.A.
Director, Member and Affiliate Relations Division

Subject: House of Delegates Apportionment for the Period of July 1, 2007 to June 30, 2011

According to the ASHP Bylaws, the House of Delegates must be reapportioned on a quadrennial basis. The last one covered the period July 1, 2003 to June 30, 2007. Each state is entitled to two (2) delegates and the remaining 59 delegates apportioned according to the ASHP Bylaws:

Article 7.1.1.1. As soon as convenient after July 1, in every fourth year beginning with the year 1983, the Board of Directors shall apportion 163 delegates among the states in proportion as nearly as can be, to the total of active ASHP members in each state as recorded. Each state shall have at least two delegates. For the purpose of computing reapportionment, the Board of Directors shall use the total of active members during the immediately preceding year.

The accompanying information was based on membership information available through June 30, 2007. With each state receiving two delegates (52 affiliates). The balance (59 delegates) were apportioned by dividing the number of ASHP members per state by the total ASHP active membership and multiplying by the number of seats to be apportioned.

As the result of these calculations, three states (Arkansas, Massachusetts and Utah) gained one seat each and three states (Georgia and New Mexico, and West Virginia) lost one seat each.

A complete listing of states and the number of delegates is attached for your reference.
