Introduction

ASHP Policy Positions 1982–2008 is a catalog of professional policy positions adopted by the ASHP House of Delegates (HOD), organized from the most current year, 2008, back to those adopted in 1982. The foundations for ASHP's policy positions are its Mission Statement and its purposes as stated in the ASHP Charter. ASHP is a 35,000-member national professional association that represents pharmacists who practice in hospitals, health maintenance organizations, long-term care facilities, home care, and other components of health care systems. ASHP is the only national organization of hospital and health-system pharmacists and has a long history of improving medication use and enhancing patient safety. The Society has extensive publishing and educational programs designed to help members improve their delivery of pharmaceutical care, and it is the national accrediting organization for pharmacy residency and pharmacy technician training programs.

The mission of ASHP is to advance and support the professional practice of pharmacists in hospitals and health systems and serve as their collective voice on issues related to medication use and public health.

The purposes of ASHP, as stated in the ASHP Charter, are as follows:

1. To advance public health by promoting the professional interests of pharmacists practicing in hospitals and other organized health-care settings through:
 - a. Fostering pharmaceutical services aimed at drug-use control and rational drug therapy.
 - b. Developing professional standards for pharmaceutical services.
 - c. Fostering an adequate supply of well-trained, competent pharmacists and associated personnel.
 - d. Developing and conducting programs for maintaining and improving the competence of pharmacists and associated personnel.
 - e. Disseminating information about pharmaceutical services and rational drug use.
 - f. Improving communication among pharmacists, other members of the health-care industry, and the public.
 - g. Promoting research in the health and pharmaceutical sciences and in pharmaceutical services.
 - h. Promoting the economic welfare of pharmacists and associated personnel.
2. To foster rational drug use in society such as through advocating appropriate public policies toward that end.
3. To pursue any other lawful activity that may be authorized by ASHP's Board of Directors.

Each policy position in this catalog is identified by a four-digit number: the first two digits show the year that the policy was approved by the HOD, and the third and fourth digits are sequencing numbers. The source for each policy position indicates how the policy position was introduced to the HOD, e.g., in a report of a council, through the Chairman of the Board, or as a resolution. Background information on policy positions, prior to 2000, can be found in that year's April 1 issue of the American Journal of Health-System Pharmacy under "ASHP Reports." For 2000 and following years, the background information can be found on the ASHP Web site (www.ashp.org).

All ASHP policy positions are published annually in this document, and practice-related policy positions are compiled in Best Practices for Hospital & Health-System Pharmacy: Positions and Guidance Documents of ASHP.

To support, with appropriate changes in federal statutes and regulations, the establishment of an intermediate category of drug products that do not require a prescription but are available only from pharmacists and licensed health care professionals who are authorized to prescribe medications; further,

To base such support on the following facts:

1. 2. Pharmacists have the education, training, and expertise to help patients make appropriate therapeutic decisions associated with the use of such drug products; further,

To support that the regulatory system for this intermediate category of drug products contain the following features:

1. Drug products appropriate for this intermediate category would be identified through the advice of pharmacists, physicians, and other licensed health professionals who are authorized to prescribe medications, on the basis of the medical conditions to be treated and potential adverse effects (as indicated in FDA-approved labeling);

prescription, on the basis of appropriate assessment and professional consultation;

3. Licensed health professionals who currently have prescribing authority would continue to have the ability to prescribe medications in this intermediate category; and
