

Service Commitment (“Staffing”) Survey: How Do You Compare With the Rest?

There was an excellent response rate from ASHP-accredited pharmacy practice and specialized pharmacy practice residency programs to a survey conducted in the fall of 2003 to assess what sites are doing to provide residents with experience in the service commitment (also known as “staffing”) component of their training. Click the following links (one for pharmacy practice residency program results and the other for specialized pharmacy practice residency program results) to see what sites are doing to provide this valuable aspect of training.
