

In the Spotlight

2013 Distinguished Service Award Winner

Jeff Little, Pharm.D., MPH, BCPS

Director of Pharmacy
Saint Luke's Hospital
Kansas City, Missouri

Jeff Little currently serves as Director of Pharmacy at Saint Luke's Hospital in Kansas City, Missouri. Prior to this, he served as Assistant Director of Pharmacy at Children's Mercy Hospitals and Clinics in Kansas City, Missouri. Jeff also holds an Adjunct Clinical Instructor appointment with the University of Kansas School of Pharmacy.

Jeff received his Doctor of Pharmacy Degree from the University of Kansas. After graduation, he completed a combined PGY-1/PGY-2 residency in health systems pharmacy administration at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center. He also completed a Master of Public Health degree from the University of Pittsburgh Graduate School of Public Health.

Jeff has served ASHP and the New Practitioners Forum in a variety of capacities. He was a member of the New Practitioners Forum Communication and Public Affairs Advisory Group, then became the Chair of the newly formed Communications and Technology Advisory Group. He served as Vice Chair then Chair of the New Practitioners Forum Executive Committee. He also has served as the New Practitioner on the Council on Public Policy. Jeff's current ASHP involvement includes being a member of the Government Affairs and PAC Advisory Committee and being a member of the Section Advisory Group on Management Development.

At the state level, Jeff is currently the Treasurer for the Kansas Council of Health-Systems Pharmacists. He also serves on the Education Committee.