

2022 Managers Boot Camp Faculty

Udobi Campbell, Pharm.D., M.B.A.

Regional Director of Pharmacy
UNC Health
Chapel Hill, NC

Udobi Campbell, Pharm.D., M.B.A., is the Regional Director of Pharmacy for the Triangle West region of UNC Health. She also serves as the Executive Associate Dean for Clinical Practice at the UNC Eshelman School of Pharmacy. She assumed these roles on January 2, 2020. Before joining UNC Health, Dr. Campbell was a 12-year employee of Duke University Hospital, where she held multiple senior leadership roles in both the inpatient and outpatient pharmacy service platforms. Dr. Campbell obtained her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Florida A&M University in Tallahassee, FL, in 1998. She subsequently pursued and completed her pharmacy practice residency at Duke University Medical Center in 2001. In 2007, she earned a Master of Business Administration degree and a Health Sector Management certificate from Duke University Fuqua School of Business. Dr. Campbell is an active participant in local and national pharmacy organizations and has a strong interest in developing other leaders.

Kristine K. Gullickson, Pharm.D., M.B.A., FASHP

Director of Pharmacy
Abbott Northwestern Hospital, part of Allina Health
Minneapolis, MN

Kristine Gullickson, PharmD, MBA, FASHP, FMSHP is the Director of Pharmacy at Allina Health, Abbott Northwestern Hospital, a 630 staffed-bed teaching hospital in Minneapolis, MN. Gullickson chairs the Allina Health Pharmacy Operations Committee responsible for strategy and operational alignment across the 12-hospital health system. She is the Residency Program Director for the hospital's PGY2 Health-System Pharmacy Administration and Leadership residency program and serves as a guest lecturer at the University of Minnesota College of Pharmacy. She received her pharmacy degree from North Dakota State University, completed a PGY1 Pharmacy Practice Residency, and received her MBA from New England College. Gullickson currently serves as Chair of the MN Hospital Association Medication Safety Committee and an alternate on the ASHP Committee on Nominations. She has also served ASHP as Chair, Section of Pharmacy Practice Leaders Executive Committee; Chair, Council on Pharmacy Practice; House of Delegates, SAG member, ASHP expert panel member for Controlled Substance Diversion Prevention and the ASHP/APhA Medication Management in Care Transitions project. She is a Past-President of the Minnesota Society of Health System Pharmacists and was awarded the MSHP Hallie Bruce Memorial Lecture Award in 2020, MSHP's highest award in recognition of significant contributions to the profession of pharmacy, humanity and public health.

Jeff Little, Pharm.D., M.P.H., BCPS, FACHE, FASHP

Director of Pharmacy
Saint Luke's Hospital
Kansas City, MO

Jeff Little currently serves as Director of Pharmacy at Saint Luke's Hospital of Kansas City and Adjunct Clinical Instructor with the University of Kansas School of Pharmacy. Jeff earned his Doctor of Pharmacy Degree from the University of Kansas. After graduation, he completed a combined PGY1/PGY2 residency in health-system pharmacy administration in conjunction with a Master of Public Health at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center. Jeff currently serves ASHP as Chair-Elect of the Section of Pharmacy Practice Leaders Executive Committee. His prior involvement with ASHP includes being a past Chair of the Council on Public Policy and being a past Chair of the PAC and Advocacy Advisory Committee. Jeff is also a Past President of the Kansas Council of Health-System Pharmacy.

Long D. Trinh, PharmD, MS, MBA, BCPS

Regional Director of Pharmacy Operations and Compliance, Oregon
Providence Health & Services
Portland, OR

Long D. Trinh serves as Regional Director of Pharmacy Operations and Compliance, Providence Health & Services Oregon. In this role, he also serves as Residency Program Director for the PGY1 & 2 Health-System Pharmacy Administration and Leadership with MBA degree. Dr. Trinh received his undergraduate degree and Summa Cum Laude distinction from University of Oregon, received his pharmacy degree from Oregon State University & Oregon Health and Science University, completed a residency in Health-System Pharmacy Administration at the Cleveland Clinic Main Campus, and received a Master of Science degree in Health-System Pharmacy Administration from Northeast Ohio Medical University, and Master of Business Administration degree in Executive Leadership from the Oregon State University College of Business.

His professional career has been devoted to identifying and implementing initiatives to enhance caregiver well-being, engagement, and innovative process improvement opportunities, as well as developing new healthcare businesses and programs. Dr. Trinh is experienced in working in matrix, multi-regional health systems, strategic planning, advanced operations, medication safety, compliance, project management and change influence. His research interests and publications are related to caregiver well-being and engagement, workload and productivity, and performance management. Dr. Trinh currently serves the American Society of Health-System Pharmacist on the Strategy & Industry Disruptor Section Advisory Group and Manager's Bootcamp, and as Northern Chapter Chair and Board Member of the Oregon Society of Health-System Pharmacists. His sources of personal fulfillment include spending quality time with family, friends and mentors, world travel, learning how to sail, and being active in the great outdoors.

Tara B. Vlasimsky, Pharm.D., BCPS, BCACP
System Manager, Ambulatory Clinical Pharmacy
SCL Health
Denver, CO

Tara Vlasimsky is the System Manager of Ambulatory Clinical Pharmacy with SCL Health where she oversees ambulatory clinical pharmacy services for SCL Health clinics in Colorado and Montana. Prior to this role, Tara served as the Assistant Director of Ambulatory Clinical Pharmacy at Denver Health Medical Center, where she led the expansion of several clinical pharmacy services with an emphasis on developing innovative models of care that work across disciplines and practice settings. Tara earned her B.S. in Biomechanical Engineering at Southern Methodist University then worked for ten years as a business consultant in the healthcare industry, working with hospitals, health plans and technology startups. Tara then left consulting to earn her Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Colorado Skaggs School of Pharmacy, then completed a PGY1 residency at SCL Health Saint Joseph Hospital in Denver, CO. Tara is professionally active in ASHP and the Pharmacy Practice Leaders Section, most recently as Chair of the Strategy and Industry Disrupters Section Advisory Group. Tara is also a past Chair of the Colorado Academy of Health-System Pharmacists, and served on the Colorado Pharmacists Society Board for 7 years.