This activity was planned to meet the educational needs of pharmacists and pharmacy technicians.

Activity Overview

Join us as we host John D. Grabenstein, RPh, PhD, FASHP, FAPhA, discuss what the near future may hold in terms of emergency use authorizations (EUAs) for one or more SARS-COV-2 vaccines to help prevent COVID-19. Dr. Grabenstein was a part of the very first EUA involving the anthrax vaccine in 2005, and has been closely monitoring the trials of SARS-CoV-2 vaccine candidates throughout 2020. We will discuss what a likely EUA would mean and what information is still needed for licensure, the makeup of the approaching vaccines, the distribution campaign, and standards for mass-immunization programs. The webinar will help you make informed decisions for yourself, your patients, your teammates, and your organization as rollout of these novel vaccines begins.

Learning Objectives

- Describe EUA status in regards to COVID-19 vaccine access.
- Describe how clinicians should handle EUA differently than licensed vaccines.
- Identify characteristics of leading vaccine candidates, including supply chain management considerations.
- List resources for tracking additional COVID-19 vaccine candidates.

Faculty Disclosures

In accordance with the ACPE's and ACCME's Standards for Commercial Support, anyone in a position to control the content of an educational activity is required to disclose to the accredited provider their relevant financial relationships. In accordance with these Standards, all potential conflicts of interest have been resolved. An individual has a relevant financial relationship if he or she (or spouse/domestic partner) has a financial relationship in any amount occurring in the last 12 months with a commercial interest whose products or services are discussed in the activity content over which the individual has control.

As defined by ACCME, a commercial interest is any entity producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care goods or services consumed by, or used on, patients. The Standards for Commercial Support do not consider providers of clinical service directly to patients to be commercial interests. The existence or non-existence of relevant financial relationships will be disclosed to the activity audience. All identified conflicts of interest must be resolved prior to the activity.

- All planners, presenters, reviewers, and ASHP staff report no financial relationships relevant to this activity.
