

Confidentiality Statement

It is critical for students to conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the best ethical principles of the profession of pharmacy. Students are to exercise integrity and honesty in all aspects of the ASHP Clinical Skills Competition ("CSC").

- Students will not discuss the substance or content of the preliminary/local round case or related answer key with anyone except their teammate until November 3.
- Students will not give or receive assistance to anyone other than their teammate during the CSC.
- Plagiarism and other forms of dishonesty undermine the very purpose of the competition and diminish the value of this educational activity. If a team is found to have plagiarized material during the CSC, they will be disqualified.
- During the CSC, students will not use any computer software or resources other than those identified by their faculty coordinators.

To participate in the ASHP Clinical Skills Competition ("CSC"), each of the undersigned students agrees that he/she has read the Confidentiality Statement above and agrees to the content therein.
